EASTERN DATES TO SEPT 10

EASTERN STATES

Maine Election—A Sweeping Victory—A Net Gain of Over 5,000

AUGUSTA, Sept 10, [illegible] A. M.—Blaine sent the following telegram last night:

To the President of the United States, Long Branch: We have carried the State for Governor Perham by more than [illegible] majority, a net gain of [illegible] over last year's vote. We have carried all the Congressional districts by [illegible] majority. We have carried every county in the State, [illegible] and have elected every Senator, and chosen four fifths of the House of Representatives. [illegible] Our victory is complete and overwhelming at all points. It ensures you 25,000 majority in November.

NEW YORK, Sept [illegible]—More excitement has been witnessed here to-night than since the opening of the campaign at various political headquarters in this city. Fifth Avenue Hotel, [illegible] and Spangler House were thronged from an early hour this morning by [illegible] anxious to hear returns from Maine.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept 10—A Dispatch received from Blaine at the Union League to day says he has carried the 3d Congressional District by an increased majority over last election.

PORTLAND, Sept 10, [illegible] A. M.—A hundred and ninety eight towns give Perham [illegible] and Kimball 35,135. Last year Perham had 38,[illegible]0 and Kimball 30,467—a Republican gain of 8,22[illegible] and a Republican net gain over 1,5[illegible]1 of 3,[illegible]00. In the thirty towns not heard from last year Perham had [illegible] and Kimball [illegible]381, a majority of 2,441. If this is increased in proportion to towns received Perham will have [illegible] majority. The total vote will, if it is increased in proportion, be 126,000, of which Perham is shown to have [illegible] and Kimball 55,[illegible]. Last year the total vote was 105,[illegible], of which Perham had [illegible] and Kimball [illegible].

AUGUSTA, Sept 10, 2 A. M.—All five of the Congressional districts were carried by the Republicans. In the First District Burleigh received about 2,[illegible] majority; in the Second Frye about 4,000; in the Fourth Hersey about 1,000; in the Third Blaine about [illegible],000, and in the Fifth Hale about 2,[illegible]. The contest in Kennebec county where Speaker Blaine resides was peculiarly animated, resulting in giving the speaker a majority in every one of the [illegible] towns of the county. Six of these towns are usually Democratic.

Printers' Strike

NEW YORK, Sept 9—Nearly 100 printers are on a strike here in violation of a law of their Union.

Railroad Collision

ST. LOUIS, Sept [illegible]—Two freight trains on the Missouri railroad collided 40 miles from here this morning. Both engines are ruined, four cattle cars broken, forty head of cattle killed and two cars of merchandise smashed. Loss $30,000. Cause misreading of time table.

The Supposed Nathan Murderer

WASHINGTON, Sept [illegible]—Detective Farley arrived here this morning to take Billy Forrester, the alleged Nathan murderer, to New York. To guard against any attempt at rescue by Forrester's friends he was heavily ironed hand and foot and placed aboard a special car. Farley when asked what connection Forrester had with the Nathan murder said he would not give three cents for his neck if he got him to New York.

NEW YORK, Sept 9—Billy Forrester, the alleged Nathan murderer, arrived from Washington this evening and was taken to prison.

Not Sane Enough to Get Out

NEW YORK, Sept 9—Application of James Burns, accused of the murder of John Halloran, and on the ground of insanity sent to the insane asylum, and who applied to the Supreme Court for release on the ground of recovery of reason, was denied by Judge Leonard to day and Burns was remanded to the asylum.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

From Paris.

PARIS, Sept 9—Orders have been issued stopping work on the military defenses near Mont Cenis tunnel.

The International Council.

LONDON, Sept 9—The general council of Internationalists which has been removed to New York consists of Messrs Cavanaugh, St. Clair, Laurel, Bertrant, Karl Marx, Leviello, David, Tonoxeieru, Ward, Speyer, Doreur and four others to be elected by the American Federation. Marx will reside hereafter in the United States.

Closing Work of the Geneva Tribunal—Amount of Award.

GENEVA, Sept 9—The amount of damages awarded to the United States by the Board of Arbitration will exceed three millions sterling only by a few thousand pounds. The sitting of the Board to day was brief, a few matters of detail only engaging the attention of the Board. The closing session will be on Saturday next and will be open to the public. Arbitrators, agents, counsel and secretaries will be present. Ladies have been invited to attend. The arbitrators and others connected with the Board will leave Geneva to-morrow by special train for Berne, where they will be guests of the Government. The party will lunch at Interlachen on Thursday morning and dine with the President of the Federal Council of Switzerland at Berne in the evening.

A Turk Banished.

NEW YORK, Sept 9—A special from Constantinople states that Mohammed Pasha has been consigned by the Sultan to banishment, and his estates are to be confiscated for appropriating public money to his own uses.

Reads Like an American Dispatch

MADRID, Sept [illegible]—An express train on the Barcelona and Valencia railway was thrown from the track between Tarragona and Tortosa, caused by a land slide. The engine was turned over and demolished. Many passengers were killed. Among the killed are a General and Senator. Further details are not received in consequence of the breaking of the telegraph wire.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH.

From Albany

ALBANY, Sept 10—An unsuccessful attempt was made last night to burn the St. Charles Hotel in this city by saturating rags and paper with kerosene and placing them between the floor of the second story and ceiling, in a hole left for the purpose of an escape pipe. The Fire Department was promptly on hand, but the fire was extinguished by buckets of water which were in readiness. The fire was discovered about half past 10 o'clock and before all the inmates of the house had retired. Had it been later in the night the building would undoubtedly have been burned.

By request the following is given as the verdict of the Coroner's jury in the case of the deaf mute killed by the cars on Saturday morning: We the jury, empanelled to inquire into the cause of the death of Harrison Daniel, do find that he came to his death on the evening of September 7, 1872, by being run over by the cars on the Oregon and California Railroad in the city of Albany, Linn county, Oregon, and we further find that it resulted from the reckless manner of driving the engine through the streets. Signed by the jurors [illegible].

Weather clear and cool. Harvesting nearly finished. Crops reported to be much better than last year. Wheat is coming in slowly and no sales of any [illegible].

POLITICAL NOTES

A correspondent of the Chicago Tribune writes from Wheeling, West Virginia, that [illegible] Jacob has announced that he is with the Blanton Duncan party and will stump the State for the Louisville nominees.

The Trenton, New Jersey, [illegible] says: Trustworthy information from all parts of the State induces us to believe that the Republicans will carry it by from 5,000 to 10,000 majority. The Democratic party was never before so indifferent, apathetic and divided.

The St. Louis [illegible] says that Judge Davis, who failed to get the Cincinnati nomination, believes that Governor Oglesby will carry Illinois by 40,000 majority and Grant by a still larger figure. He looks upon the Greeley ticket with Gratz Brown at the tail of it as a political farce of the biggest proportions.

LAST NIGHT'S DISPATCHES.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

EASTERN STATES

Further from Maine

NEW YORK, Sept 10—The Tribune's Augusta special says Blaine's majority will not exceed [illegible] and that Perham's majority will be about 18,000. Burleigh for Congress 1,600. Frye for Congress 3,100. Hale's majority will be large.

LEWISTON (Me.), Sept 10—The Journal has returns from [illegible] showing the Republican majority of 11,[illegible] and says at this rate the State will show a Republican gain of 4,000 or 5,000 over last year.

Senator Wilson made a speech at Cochituate yesterday in which he explained that the German letter to which his name was signed denying that he ever was a Know Nothing was written by German friends without his authority.

Louisville Delegates at New York

NEW YORK, Sept 10—Several delegates from Louisville arrived in this city yesterday and to day, with a view of waiting on Charles O'Conor relative to the Louisville nomination, but up to noon no interview had taken place. A reporter who waited on O'Conor was informed by him that he knew nothing of such delegation, and seemed indifferent on the subject.

One of Many

MEADVILLE, Pa., Sept 10—A train on the Pennsylvania Railroad was wrecked this morning near this town by running into an engine house through a misplaced switch. Thirteen persons were injured, but not dangerous.

Died

NEW YORK, Sept 10—John Horner, for many years cashier of the Western Union Telegraph Co., died to day, aged 52.

Crime in Chicago

CHICAGO, Sept 10—The following call is published this morning, signed by seventy of the most prominent citizens, including Henry Greenebaum, the well known banker, Horace White of the Tribune and Andrew Sherman, editor of the Journal: The sad occurrences of cold blooded murder in our midst cannot longer be allowed to pass unnoticed by our citizens generally with a due regard to the safety of society. The people of Chicago must demand that murderers shall be hanged. To this end we invite all citizens to meet in mass meeting on Market street, corner of Madison, on Thursday evening, Sept 12th, at 8 o'clock. Able speakers will address the meeting.

Charles Rafferty, the brutal murderer of police officer O'Meara, was arraigned in the Criminal Court yesterday. An Attorney is secured and his trial is in progress. The court room is crowded with the prisoner's friends, who are all of the lowest class. Judge Bree decided to exclude testimony offered by the prisoner's counsel to show he was drunk at the time of committing the murder. The unprovoked murder of Callahan on Sunday night, and the fact that there are now six murderers in the county jail, has aroused the citizens to a determination that the laws shall be executed, or at least that murder shall not flourish here as it has for the past few months.

WASHINGTON CITY

The Duello

WASHINGTON, Sept 10—Lewis Boggle, manager of the [illegible] newspaper, has challenged Alex R. Sheppard, President of the Board of Public Works, to fight a duel.

Spanish Vessels

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

From Geneva.

GENEVA, Sept 10—The Arbitrators will hold their next meeting on Friday. The award to America is now stated at three and a quarter millions pounds sterling.

Minister Schenck—John Bull Growls

Mr Schenck, American Minister, is expected here to day.

The Advertiser of this morning expresses in strong terms its disapprobation of the result of labors of the Geneva arbitrators. It says the plain English of it is that the British Government has allowed the Americans to bully us out of three or four million pound sterling to curry favor with them, and they modestly congratulate us upon paying the amount in settlement of claims for which a few weeks ago it was affirmed that England is neither legally nor morally bound.

CALIFORNIA

From San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 10—Col F. E. G. Tittle and Wm Tittle, on behalf of themselves and the children of their deceased brothers, contest the will of their mother, recently deceased, on the ground of the unsoundness of the mind of the testator. She left property to the amount of over $100,000 to various parties—wholly disinheriting her sons and grand children, on the alleged ground of unfilial conduct on their part extending over many years. The case will come up for hearing in the Probate Court on Thursday.

Tallant & Co have bought the lot on the north east corner of California and Battery street—63½ feet on California by 62 feet on Battery—for a banking office. The property sold recently to the Hibernian Bank for $55,000, and now brings an advance.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept 10—Mrs Adams, who was to deliver a lecture on the prophetical and scriptural aspects of the Presidential contest at Platt's Hall this evening, had an audience of 14 persons all told.

In the Fair case no new jurors have been obtained. Forty four persons who had been summoned were examined and all excused. Fifty citizens will be summoned daily until a jury is obtained or the attempt is abandoned.

There is yet no news of the Panama or Australian steamers, and as the fog is as dense as ever it is hardly possible that either will be able to get in to night.

The river and bay steamers are whistling constantly this evening to avoid collisions, as they are feeling their way slowly and cautiously towards their wharves.

INTERIOR CALIFORNIA DISPATCHES.

The ship [illegible], with 1,700 tons of wheat, sailed for Liverpool.

It is believed to be the commencement of a series of Indian troubles in that section.

Canvass of the Vote

The official canvass of the Territorial vote for Congress gives Cannon 20,969; Maxwell 1,420, with two scattering. Maxwell files a protest against issuance of certificate by the Governor, claiming the vote illegal.

The flames spread very rapidly and before the fire department reached the ground the building was in flames. The firemen by great exertions saved the adjoining buildings, confining the fire to one building. Loss between $6,000 and $7,000. Insured for $4,000.

The new Carson Appeal, a Republican daily, with Harry R. Mighels as editor and proprietor, made its appearance yesterday.

FOUR HEADLESS MEN DANCE A QUADRILLE IN A BRIDE'S BED CHAMBER

The following grotesquely horrible story is translated from a late issue of the Paris Figaro:

This day eight days ago a wedding was celebrated at A——. A merchant's clerk named Marius Crampin married a young girl of eighteen, called Anna R——. Anna R—— was an orphan from childhood and has been educated by an old priest dead six months ago. Though she was very attractive and had a dowry of 30,000 francs—a respectable sum for a simple clerk—Crampin was far from jubilant when he left the church. Some of his friends, in fact, on hearing of his marriage had sneered at the matter in rather a singular manner without offering any explanations, and had declined to be present at the wedding. Besides, when the sacrifice was consummated Crampin felt tormented by suspicions which before marriage he repelled with contempt. In order to dispel them he drank deep, and towards midnight he was pretty mellow. It was now time to retire to rest. The bride went first and extinguished the taper. Five minutes afterward Crampin in turn arrived. "Hallo," he exclaimed, stumbling, "my wife pretends to be asleep. We must light the candle again." But just as he was about to strike a light with a match he heard a rustling of curtains, and a man appeared—a man of great height wrapped in a white shroud that was spotted over with blood, and without a head. He carried a red lantern. Crampin uttered a stifled exclamation; the bride rose hastily, and the two remained spellbound by terror at the frightful spectacle before their eyes. For from the corners of the room emerged three other headless persons, all clothed in white but blood-bespattered winding sheets, each with a red lantern in one hand and his head in the other. They stationed themselves in front of the fireplace and saluted the young couple in a ceremonious manner. Then, strange to tell, they spoke. Crampin in his terror knew not whether the voice issued from the body or from the head. "Good day to you, citizen Crampin," said one of the headless beings. "I am Joseph Grigois, a client of thy wife's great grandfather." "Give me thy hand, Crampin," said the other sneeringly. "Madame knows me too. I lost my head in 1838 at the hands of his grandfather." By this time Crampin was down on his knees, and his bride was moaning in a state of distraction from fear. But they were alone in the house, which was situated at the gates of the town, and nobody came near them. The third phantom then advanced. "Little one," he said in an amiable tone, "thou canst boast of having had a grandfather who did his work admirably. I too passed through his hands." "Great God!" groaned Crampin, in despair, "the man without a head speaks through his nose!" "Step out, children!" called out the spectre, "the nuptial ball is about to begin. Forward, both!" And the four guillotined persons, taking their places, broke into a dance—a supernatural can can that froze the blood in the veins of the young couple. They leaped up and down, backwards and forwards, spread wide the winding sheets like great wide wings, and played like jugglers with their heads. It was frightful, and all the more when suddenly they burst out in chorus and sang staves of a horribly grotesque song. Then all at once, opening the door, they disappeared in the dark lobby, after having deposited four heads on the knees of the bride. "Merciful heavens!" gasped the latter with horror, "the clients of my family!" "What family, madame?" yelled Crampin, horrified, in the midst of his terror, by the exclamation. "Forgive me," supplicated the bride, throwing herself on her knees before him; "Grandpapa was an executioner." The wretched Crampin sprang to his feet and then fell senseless. As soon as he returned to himself, without taking time to pack his trunk, he precipitately left the town, and has not been again seen. The investigation of the police into this mysterious affair resulted in the discovery that the four guillotined persons were none others than the friends of Crampin, who had learned, one knows not how, of the unfortunate connections of the bride. Their four heads were four melons.

Lincoln, Trumbull and Jayne

In his speech in Springfield, Ill., General Stephen A. Hurlbut said: "In the year 1860, just before the election, Mr Lincoln sent for me where I live and asked me to come down to this county. This story will show you the character of the two men, Lincoln and Trumbull. He said to me: 'We have found out that we have to throw our whole strength in this Senatorial district, by which we can reelect Trumbull to the United States Senate. Now,' said he, 'I want you to go round this neighborhood and hold meetings in all the school houses and corners and see if you cannot succeed in electing Dr. Jayne.' I went, and it was diabolical weather. And such roads—phew! And they drove night by night, sometimes away, up here and there, speaking to little gatherings of farmers, in the rain and in the mud. I did it to oblige Mr Lincoln and to do good to the Republican party. So somehow or other we elected Dr Jayne, and that gave us one majority in the Senate, and we elected Lyman Trumbull Senator of the United States. In that Senate I was a member. Very well, we began to go on, or looked very much like it. Mr. Trumbull then commenced boring Mr. Lincoln to have Dr. Jayne—and they are both friends of mine—Governor of Dakota. Mr. Lincoln objected to do it upon the ground that it would risk the Republican control of the State of Illinois and the Legislature, Gov. Yates, our friend Dubois and Hatch, and all the State officers. I, myself, and some others wrote to Mr. Trumbull and begged of him not to persuade Mr. Lincoln now. To wait until we'd see where we were. But he wearied out Mr. Lincoln's patience until Dr. Jayne was appointed Governor of Dakota, and resigned his seat as State Senator of Illinois. And in the middle of the war, by losing that one vote—to accomodate Dr Jayne—we lost the control of the State Legislature, and Gov. Yates was forced to prorogue it in order to avoid civil war in our own State. That is civil history. I don't know whether nepotism in helping a man's family is creditable or not. I was not sorry that Dr. Jayne received the appointment by the influence of Mr. Trumbull. I was perfectly satisfied, but I don't think that they who are doing these things all their lives should attack one man who has never done the one-millionth part of what they have done."

Avoid Disorganization

A grave responsibility rests upon the Republican members of the Legislature On their action depends to a very great extent the unity and future success and usefulness of the Republican party of the State Disorganization now will inevitably bear fruit in future defeats A strenuous effort is being made at Salem to prevent a caucus for the nomination of a Senator The parties making this effort have abandoned the hope of obtaining enough Republican votes to elect their candidate They trust that if they can hold out of caucus enough Republicans to break a majority on joint ballot they can make up the requisite number from the Democratic side A Senator so elected would not be entitled to consideration as a Republican His election under such circumstances would disrupt the party and throw the State against Grant in November We do not believe there are Republicans in the Legislature who are willing to hazard such a result All disorganizers are enemies of the party

Ambition, desire for place, sometimes tempts men to sacrifice party principles to promote their own selfish ends Now let it be understood that no Senator elected outside of the Republican organization can be a Republican He will not be recognized as a Republican by the Republicans of Oregon nor can he gain recognition as such with the National Administration He will go to Washington in debt to the Democracy and the debt will be of a nature that must be paid Should Greeley be elected such a Senator would from the mere force of circumstances come out a Greeley Democrat There would be no help for it The tendency would be irresistible, the result inevitable The blow would be a calamitous one to the Republican party of Oregon Disaster would follow in its train

To escape these dangers and to avoid the snares which intrigue is spreading before their feet, the Republican members of the Assembly owe it to themselves and to the party which elected them to go into caucus, vote there for the candidates they want, and to support and elect the one who receives the nomination The time is critical and the danger great All disorganizers should know that severe condemnation awaits them Parties can be maintained only by adherence to party usage Every other course leads to division, disruption and defeat We entreat the Republican members of the Assembly to do their duty, to stand firm and having done all, to stand

Among other formal business transactions was a resolution to the Secretary of State to furnish the members with copies of the journals of the sessions of 1868 and 1870 The session laws of 1868 and 1870 [illegible]

Waiting for the Senate Mr Caples said May I ask whether it would be proper at this moment in the future as we understand of the other House to organize to introduce bills

The Speaker—I think it would not be proper

Mr Caples—I had an object in asking this question There are a number of very important matters demanding legislation in our county For instance the wheels of justice are practically stopped in our city at present in the absence of an amendment to our laws and [illegible] the people throughout the State are interested in the question I have [illegible] I should just like to know therefore that we on our part forming this House are ready for business that we took but little time to organize that we are anxious to proceed with the important matters that are to come before us and that if there is any responsibility in connection with the fact that the course of legislation is at this stage blocked it should be understood that it does not rest upon this but upon some other House [Applause]

The Speaker—The Chair takes it to be the opinion of the House that, as matters stand we cannot now proceed to business

Mr Simpson moved that the Sergeant at Arms be instructed to provide the members of the House with four newspapers of the State during the session each member selecting such papers as he might wish The motion was seconded

Mr Patton moved an amendment that the number of papers to be [illegible] six and a further amendment was made by Mr Clow with the object of fixing the number at four

Mr Burbank said they were [illegible] it seemed to him that four newspapers would be [illegible] but that six would be extravagance

Mr Hutton maintained that the House was entitled to just as much information through the public prints as the House of last session which was strongly Democratic

Mr Clow said that if his memory served him right the resolution before the last House was for four papers and this was amended to three The amendment that the number be three was lost

Mr Caples did not think that there was any member who would care to read more than four papers—then why have more If this was to be an economical Legislature, as he believed they intended to be and would be let them start with reasonable economy He was satisfied their constituents did not desire them to be niggard ly any more than that they should be extravagant He had great respect for the last House, still he did not think what was then done would be a safe guide for their deliberations during the present session It seemed to him that the fewer precedents of that House that were adopted the better it would be for the present House and the country

The resolution that the number of papers be four was carried

Mr Caples moved that the Secretary of State be required to furnish each member with three dollars worth of postage stamps The motion prevailed

At 11 o clock the House adjourned until 2 o clock

Motion by Martin to grant leave of absence until Monday the 16th to Washburn of Lane county carried

The Position of Democrats

Senator Sherman in his speech at San Francisco on Monday evening is reported to have used the following language which is worthy of the careful consideration of every candid Democrat in the State

He was glad to notice that all over the United States intelligent Democrats were beginning to analyze their position If said he they vote for Greeley merely to defeat the Republican party in order that they may share with disappointed Republicans in the spoils of office then their vote is logical enough It is a division of plunder and not a contest of principle If they vote for Greeley to condemn the policy of the Republican party then they are illogical, for Greeley not only supported this policy but is nominated on a platform pledging them to a faithful execution of it If they vote for Greeley and spit upon the platform with a purpose secret and avowed to repudiate the promises of the Cincinnati platform then they dishonor themselves No man thus acts in private life without destroying his character for integrity And yet this is the position openly avowed by leading Democrats especially in Kentucky and other Southern States If any Democrat votes for Greeley because he thinks that General Grant is a dishonest man a dangerous man seeking extraordinary powers for selfish ends or that General Grant is a corrupt man then his position is logical enough but he shows his partisan feeling, his ignorance of General Grant and does gross injustice to one of the most remarkable characters of our time If any Democrat honestly and heartily believes in the Cincinnati platform then his choice is a purely personal one between Greeley and Grant between Greeley an erratic visionary who would not be trusted by any firm or corporation in San Francisco with the conduct of business—a man violent in his denunciations strong in his prejudices—and General Grant the great leader who led our armies through the Wilderness whose military success will forever fill many pages of American history who was generous to his defeated foes and who, trusted with highest civil positions has been firm manly and successful The singular position in which the Democratic party has been placed by the nomination of Greeley is now exciting the considerate judgment of all the intelligent and independent Democrats of our country The froth of the new movement is dying away and the sober second thought of thousands of Democrats is in settling down into the conviction that whatever may be the opinion of the past the best interests of our whole country will be promoted by the re election of Grant

The weight of testimony concerning the effect of Mr Greeley s recent tour through New England is that it was not in its favor and the feeling of relief appears to have attended the announcement that he had reached home Whether he shall make another tour or remain at home silent is at present engaging the attention of his friends some of whom manifest no little concern at the possibility that he may keep on traveling and talking

A Sunday night prayer meeting at the steam boat wharf in Fall River was greatly disturbed by the antics of some swimmers one of whom pretended to be drowning and dispersed the whole meeting to rescue him

PORTLAND STREET CARS — In o [illegible] sed the Common [illegible] on the 1 h of [illegible] 1871 autho g L [illegible] and others o construc and operate a ne of treet cars n to [illegible] As we have prev ous ated a l arrangements seem the objects [illegible] incorporat on, and of the parties ng to it have been pe fected b he company The work will be commen ed immediately and pro ecuted to a speedy completion To-day the iron wil commence to be laid along F [illegible] eet. The track will exten through that street running north and south The present inten ion of he Company is to have the cars in operation by the first of No ember next. Mr Ester [illegible] of the principal incorporators, has recently returned from San Francisco where he has been to perfect arrangements secure the iron, purchase car etc He has procured a considerable expense a suit of fine street cars which are expected to arrive on the next steamer from below Portland is about to take another stride towards he po ion occupied by her older larger, and more pretentious sisters. Railroad communica ion she has already street cars will soon be in opera ion and what other important steps is to be taken towards a more perfect metropolitan existence he enterprise and activity of her citizens a one can determine

MODEL TRANSLATION —We have heard of the following model translation of the 25th chapter of Mathew, in rela ion o he five wise and five fool ish virgins as rendered by a bright Chinese Sunday School scholar The kingdom like ten girls never marry they bring some lanterns come out till some new married man come that way Have got five wise and five foolish Five hold lanterns with no oil Smart five all have oil inside. The new married man come late they sleep By and by they say, New married man—come! All go on o him Five makey no come lanterns. Five foolish say, You give my oil lamp no oil, you give my some The smart say if no give you I not enough you go market buy Foolish go market to buy The new married man come All come to dinner Shut the door By and by the foolish come and say Boss Boss, open door He say, I no likey you you no my! Must be smart, no understand the day! There are several Chinese Sunday Schools in the city, but we venture tha it would puzzle most any of their scholars to render as correct a translation

REPAIRS MADE —Within the last three weeks [illegible] needed repairs have been made to the side alks along most of the principal streets Many of the places to which we invited the atten tion of the Street Commissioner from time to time have been placed in a better condition, and thus [illegible] if not fatal accidents avoided, and damage suits against the city averted. The sidewalks along the principal and consequently oldest streets of the city have fell into a bad condition A plank here or there has decayed or gone away, so that repairs are constantly necessary No sooner has one place been repaired than some other point requires attention. The attention of the Commissioner has been diverted and divided in such a manner that some portions of the city have been neglected for a time That official has discharged his duties as faithfully as could reasonably be expected There exists no good grounds for complaint in relation to bad sidewalks Many need attention, but from the prompt manner in which repairing goes on, the crooked will soon be made straight and rough places smooth

IMPROVED APPEARANCE —Since the Street Commissioner has been actively and earnestly engaged in serving notices on the residents of the different streets and giving such parties to infer that a disregard of the notifications will be dealt with in strict accordance with law, a great and marked improvement in the appearance of the streets is apparent at a glance Parties, acting either from fear of the ordinance or a newly awakened pride, have set themselves to work with a will, and the results are not unpleasant to [illegible] The streets and sidewalks where once were thrown boxes, barrels, refuse, and in some instances offal, are now kept clean and orderly, and a new system more in keeping with the sanitary [illegible] seems to have been inaugurated Our citizens seem to be actuated by new and [illegible] impulses of neatness and clean [illegible] Let the work of renovation move forward [illegible] road, and may the vigilance of the street [illegible] not abate one jot

RETURNED —Col W. W Chapman, President [illegible] Portland, Dalles and Salt Lake Railroad [illegible], returned to this city last evening from Umatilla Mr Chapman accompanied the surveying party from the Dalles to Grand Round Landing, to make the preliminary survey for the road The initial point of the survey for the road was located at the Landing, at which point a small town plat was also laid out At that point the line strikes directly eastward from the Columbia Engineer Blair, with a party of twelve, started last Monday morning from Grand Round Landing to survey a line toward Baker City It is probable that the preliminary survey will not extend farther east than Baker City this fall

BEING OVERHAULED —The steamer Ann e Stewart is lying at the foot of Taylor street, in a [illegible] ented cond tion at present. She is undergoing a thorough renovation from her hull upwards A new wheel will be built, new boiler and stack substituted in place of the old, and the cabin remodeled in many substantial respects She will be almost as good when ready to take the line as when first launched A new furnace will be fitted. The boilers are now being made in San Francisco, and as soon as completed will be [illegible] The intention is to have the Stewart all ready to take the line by the first of November She will be one of he most handsome boats in the State when ready to ply the lower Columbia

THIEVES ABROAD —On Saturday night the [illegible] of Mr Hembree, who resides about three miles from St Joe was entered by two men The thieves managed to get two guns and before they could get anything e se, Mr Hembree who [illegible] the noise came upon them and they beat a hasty retreat. Mr Hembree did not follow them any farther at that time The thieves ran into the barn and remained there for some time eating apples which they found there Hearing a noise in that direction several imes, Mr Hembree started to see what was the matter but they "winded" him, and fled He chased them some distance but soon gave up the race

UNDER ARREST —A man named Turk was arrested last evening for using threatening language towards an officer It appears that Constable Reilly had levied on some proper y belonging to Turk, in satisfaction of an execution. Reilly proceeded to Turk's house for the purposes before named but was met at the door by the irate propr etor who threatened to shoot the Constable if he touched any of his property Reilly immediately swore out a warrant and had Turk arres ed Being unable to give bail he was committed un l this morning when the case will be exam ned before Judge Denny

SUDDEN DEATH —An old cook named Mc Namara, employed for a long time past at the Shakspeare Hotel died quite sudden y last evening at a house on the corner of P ne and Second [illegible] In the early part of the day McNamara was taken very ill at the Brooklyn House on Front street Yesterday afternoon he was removed to another boarding house kept by Mrs McCaff, at the corner of P ne and Second He [illegible] to grow worse and died last even ng about 8 o'clock Deceased was a native of Ireland, unmarried, and aged about 45 years The cause of his death is unknown

POSTPONED —The grand ball to have been given on Thursday evening 12th inst under the auspices of the members of the Improved Order of Red Men for charitable purposes, has been postponed un il to day week—19th [illegible] The ball has be n deferred in consequence of the c m cert and festi al which will be g ven to-morrow evening at Oregon City for the benefit of J M Bacon, Esq , of that place the Red Men being unwilling to be in any manner the cause of detraction from the success of so laud able an object

FOR ALBANY —At a meeting he d Monday evening by Willamette Engine Co No 1 it was determined to pay a visit to the Fire Department at Albany to-morrow in response to a cordial invitation extended to the Company some time ago Most of the members of the Company will participate in the excursion The Chief Engineer and a few invited guests will also accompan [illegible] The East Portland Brass Band has been engaged for the occasion A jolly time is anticipated all round

AUTHORIZED —At the last meeting of the Common Council the Committee on Fire and Water and Chief Engineer were authorized to enter into contracts for the construction of a stated number fire hydrants at certain required po nts n the city Acting on that authority the Committee and Engineer gave the contract yesterday to C H Myers Work w l be commenced at once so that within two weeks the hydrants will be ready for service if required

BURGLARS AGAIN —Two burglars a empted to enter the residence of Maj Simeon Francis at the corner of Eighth and Washing on streets on Monday night The burglars were endeavoring to force the lock of a door, when they were detected by a small boy the son o Mr Oppenheimer who l ves next door A dog in the back yard heard the thieves and his barking aroused the boy The burglars hastily decamped

NEW MUSIC —Geo L DePrans the Prince of music dealers in this city has laid on our table two pieces of new music just i sued by M Gray of San Francisco Good Bye Charlie a song by Carl Burgess at the Alhambra Theatre arranged by Geo T Evans We'll Vote for Grant Again a capital campaign song words by Capt Jas F Keegan, and music by Arthur Leroy Both are excellent compositions

NEW CABLE —Several workmen were engaged yesterday in mak ng a brace on the eastern bank of the river to which will be attached one end of the new cable soon to be stretched from shore to shore at the foot of Stark and L streets The old cable is composed of common galvanized wire and has broken several times, and is raveling up It will be discarded and the new cable made of steel wire substituted

NEW TRIBE —A petition for a charter for the institution of a new Tribe of the Improved Order of Red Men in this city has been forwarded to the Great Council of the United States which holds its annual sess on the present month at Baltimore It is expected that the charter will arrive and the Tribe be instituted early in October next This will be the fourth Tribe of the Order in this State

FOR FIGHTING —Two women—Mrs Wm J O Reilly and a Mrs King—engaged last evening in a regular feminine 'set to in the upper part of the city A police officer appeared on the scene in time to take those ladies (?) in charge They were taken to the jail, and being unable to give bonds for their appearance were allowed to occupy separate cells for the night

BROKEN —We learn that a man named Morse an old resident of Oregon City, and a member of the Council at that place, fell down the stairs while leaving a meeting of that body on Saturday evening, and bruised his face and body in a shocking manner His nose is said to be broken and he is in a critical condition

GRAIN WAREHOUSE —Messrs Watts are now building a large grain warehouse at St Joe along the line of the Oregon Central Railroad The building will be completed in the course of ten days, and when finished will have a capacity of thirty thousand bushels of wheat Additions will be made to this building when occasion may render it necessary

BROKE GROUND —Ground was broken Monday morning at the corner of Alder and Third streets for the new building to be erected the present season by the Good Templar Hall Association The contract calls for its completion on or before the 1st of February next Mr James Cummings is the contractor for the entire work

FROM KALAMA —Sixty Chinamen came to the city yesterday on the Fannie Troup They have been engaged all summer at work along the line of the Northern Pacific Railroad As work is being gradually suspended as winter approaches, their services will not be required until next spring

OUT —A gentleman from down the river states that the late rains have extinguished the fires which have been raging for some days on both sides of the river The smoke has also cleared away, leaving the atmosphere clear and pure

CHANGED —The N P R R Company has changed its principal office to Fifth avenue, corner of Ninth street, New York city, and all correspondents are requested to direct their communications to that address hereafter

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY —There will be a meeting of the members of this society at their hall on Friday evening next, at 7.30 o'clock Very urgent business is to be transacted, and a full attendance is solicited

BODY BROUGHT UP.—The body of Bridget Carney, a widow lady who died at Westport, last Saturday afternoon, was brought to this city last evening on the Dixie Thompson for interment

ACTORS —A number of actors will arrive on the steamer now due, who will appear at the Theater Comique at the opening of that place of amusement to-morrow evening

STILL GRINDING —The Board of Equalization is still engaged in their examination and equalization of the county taxes

ARRIVED —The steamer Ajax from this port arrived at San Francisco yesterday

AMUSEMENTS

St Patrick's Eve, a thrilling drama, and the Quiet Family, a laughable farce, were performed at Oro Fino Theatre last night to a well filled house The actors were all apparently at home in their several characters, and the programme was carried out much to the credit of the entire troupe, and to the eminent satisfaction of the audience, which was composed in part of many prominent citizens The season so far has been successful, and will so continue if all the efforts which Mr Waldron can put forth will render it so He is sparing no pains to make Oro Fino a first class place of amusement, and we are glad to chronicle the reward which is crowning his labors This evening, for the first time in this city, will be presented the great drama entitled the Lion of St Marc, or the Outlaw of the Adriatic in which the entire troupe will appear and will doubtless be one of the most interesting plays of the season We bespeak for the company a crowded house to night

PERSONAL.

Avoid the Perils of the Season

Autumn although the most radiant portion of the American year has its drawbacks The heavy evening dews and morning vapors and the great disparity in temperature between the night and day give rise to many painful disturbances of the bowels such as colic cholera morbus diarrhoea and dysentery The digestive organs are also unfavorably affected by the change of season and dyspeptics generally suffer most severely during the fall Derangements of the liver are likewise common and miasmatic fevers prevail in many unhealthy districts and low lying and marshy localities These [illegible]

Is Friday an Unlucky Day

From time immemorial Friday has been frowned upon as a day of ill omen And though the prejudice is less prevalent now than it has been of yore, when superstition had general sway yet there are many even in this matter of fact age of ours who would hesitate on a day so suspicious to begin an undertaking of momentous import And how many brave mariners whose hearts unquailing could meet the wildest fury of their ocean home would blanch to even bend their sails on Friday But to show with how much reason this feeling is indulged let us examine the following important facts in connection with our new settlement and greatness as a nation, and we will see how little cause we Americans have to dread that fatal day

On Friday August 21st 1492 Christopher Columbus sailed on his great voyage of discovery

On Friday, October 12th 1492 he first discovered land

On Friday, January 4th 1492 he sailed on his return to Spain which if he had not reached in safety the happy result would never have been known which led to the settlement of this vast continent

On Friday March 15th 1493 he arrived at Palos in safety

On Friday November 22d 1493 he arrived at Hispaniola, in his second voyage to America

On Friday, June 13th 1494 he though unknown to himself, discovered the continent of America

On Friday March 5th 1493 Henry VII of England, gave to John Cabot his commission which led to the discovery of North America This is the first American state paper in England

On Friday September 7th 1565 Melendez founded St Augustine the oldest town in the United States by more than forty years

On Friday November 10th 1620 the May Flower, with the Pilgrims, made the harbor of Provincetown And so on the same day they signed that august compact the forerunner of our present glorious constitution

On Friday December 22d, 1620 the Pilgrims made their final landing at Plymouth Rock

On Friday February 22d George Washington the Father of American Freedom was born

On Friday June 16th Bunker Hill was seized and fortified

On Friday October 7th 1777 the surrender of Saratoga was made which had such power and influence in inducing France to declare for our cause

On Friday September 22d, 1780 the treason of Arnold was laid bare which saved us from destruction

On Friday October 19th 1781 the surrender at Yorktown the crowning glory of the American arms, occurred

On Friday July 7th, 1776 the motion in Congress was made by John Adams seconded by Richard Henry Lee that the United States Colonies were, and of right ought to be, free and independent

Thus, by numerous examples, we see that, however it may be with other nations, Americans need never dread to begin on Friday, any undertaking, however momentous it may be

The Philosophy of Marriage — What Theodore Parker knew about the blessed estate of matrimony is told in this extract "Young people marry their opposite in temper and general character, and such a marriage is commonly a good match They do it instinctively The young man does not say 'My black eyes require to be wed with blue, and my over vehemence require to be a little modified with somewhat dullness and reserve' When these opposites come together to be wed they do not know it each thinks the other just like itself Old people never marry their opposites they marry their similars, and from calculation Each of these two arrangements is very proper In their long journey these two young opposites will fall out by the way a great many times but each will charm the other back again, and by and by they will agree as to the place they will go and the road they will go by, and become reconciled The man will be nobled and larger for being associated with so much humanity like himself, and she will be a nobler woman for having manhood beside her that seeks to correct her deficiencies and supply her with what she lacks, if the diversity be not too great The old bridegroom, having a much shorter journey to make, must associate him self with one like himself Men and women are married fractionally now a small fraction then a small fraction Very few are married totally and they only, I think after some forty or fifty years of gradual approach and experiment Such a large and sweet fruit is a complete marriage that it needs a very long summer to ripen in, and then a long winter to mellow and season in

Missouri papers make loud complaints of the neglect of the Governor of that State to take cognizance of the deplorable condition of affairs existing in certain portions of it Every day fresh outrages are reported so well authenticated by the testimony of the victims themselves that denial by partisans is impossible and yet the Governor does nothing toward sustaining the officers of the law willing to arrest offenders against it nor takes any steps toward forcing unwilling officials into the performance of their duty This apparently studied neglect of the Executive naturally encourages the desperadoes to still further infraction of the laws as a consequence of which their excesses are daily taking on a wider form of expression, to the grievous injury of all the best interests of the State Terrorism is said to be rapidly extending whole counties are subjected to mob rule fugitives are afraid to occupy their houses losses of all sorts are rapidly accruing sufferers have no redress and Governor Brown spends his time in electioneering for the Vice Presidency with the cry of murder ringing in his ears And this is the man whom law abiding people are asked to elevate to the second highest place in the nation!

Not very long ago the Presidential candidate of the "Liberal Democratic" party expressed his deliberate conviction that if there were not a common school in the country the Democratic party would be far stronger than it now is since the less one knew and learned the greater the certainty that he would vote the Democratic ticket from A to Izard For making this declaration he has been denounced without stint but the other day he received a vindication which must have given him exquisite satisfaction At the late Missouri State Democratic Liberal Convention a resolution was introduced declaring that universal suffrage demanded universal education but it evoked such a terrible storm of opposition that it was almost immediately withdrawn School houses and spelling books according to Mr Greeley are fatal to the growth of pure and unadulterated Democracy and it must have yielded him almost unspeakable pleasure to find his long estranged friends and supporters coming forward to clasp hands with him in his assertion and promising by their ardent opposition to the doctrine of popular education to do their best towards bringing about the Confederate millennium Surely he is to be congratulated

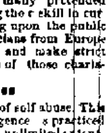
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES,

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



623 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhoea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency, etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

DR GIBBON has the pleasure of announcing that he has returned from visiting the principal Hospitals of Europe and has resumed practice at his Dispensary 623 Kearny street corner of Commercial San Francisco where his old patients and those requiring his services may find him

The Doctor has spared neither time nor money in seeking [illegible] and has returned with increased facilities for the alleviation of human suffering

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage [illegible] life In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these terrible life-destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to DR GIBBON a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate case without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary or depraved sexual indulgence is practiced by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures [illegible] sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, disposition to avoid society loss of memory hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the faces furred tongue fetid breath coughs, consumption night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained he will apply himself to study either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN.

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering and any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country with full and plain directions By inclosing Ten Dollars coin in registered letter through the Postoffice or through Wells, Fargo & Co a package of medicine will be forwarded to any part of the Union.

All communications strictly confidential

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates dupe the unwary some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy too work at their trades Some are tinsmiths shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers, etc The only way to avoid imposition is to make inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates, pretended patients' letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his offices of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure

Address DR J F GIBBON 623 Kearney street, corner Commercial San Francisco Post Office Box 1 957

REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 1 957 ON THE LETTER.

Consultations FREE

Correspondents will please inform DR GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian
